Footnotes

ONE GOOD SHARK was outsprinted to the turn, bid two then three wide to the stretch, eased widest in the drive and dug in through the stretch then surged late to get the nod. UNCOMMON SENSE was on the pace outside of RED MAN RUN to the stretch, inched away under pressure to mid stretch then dug in gamely late but was nailed on the line. WIFE SWAPPER tracked the pace to the turn, saved ground to the stretch, rallied when set down, had the rider drop his whip at the furlong marker but finished gamely between rivals. RED MAN RUN was on the pace from the rail to the stretch, got outkicked by the runnerup to mid stretch but kept to task to deep stretch before being outfinished late. KUKALAKI stalked the leaders to the turn, raced three deep to the stretch but weakened in the drive. TIZZYS FLYING IN walked out of the gate and was green in the early stages.
