Footnotes

EVENING ISLAND trailed the field to the turn, bid four wide then had to circle five wide into the stretch, rallied under strong left handed urging and won going away. SECRET JACKPOT was outsprinted early, chased the pace to the turn, bid three then four wide to the stretch but could not match strides with the winner but caught SKYRIBBON for second. SKYRIBBON attended the pace between rivals and two wide to the stretch, responded to urging and edged away to mid stretch then was outfinished in the final sixteenth. TOTALLY TRUE broke a bit slow then was pushed early and raced up inside rivals to contest the pace, dueled from the rail to the stretch but stopped in mid stretch. BARREL KNOT broke alertly and was on the pace outside a three horse spread to the stretch then also stopped.
