Footnotes

PIC ON BAILEY broke slow but quickly raced into contention, continued to advance on the upper turn from the inside, was stuck behind a wall of horses at the quarter pole, split horses into the lane, rallied to the lead just inside the furlong pole, drew clear late then just did hold off JOY'S EMPIRE in the final stages. JOY'S EMPIRE lacked good early speed, commenced her bid from off the rail once on the turn, came to the outside for the drive and finished steadily. VIA LATTEA was permitted to settle in the early stages, raced up five wide on the turn to be challenging for the lead, drifted inward once in the stretch and bumped with AMBER PLEASURE, appeared to gain command briefly at the furlong pole but slackened in the lane. FAMOUS ROYALTY dueled outside a three horse spread on the backstretch, continued to battle into the stretch while dropping inside and faded in the final furlong. FAST DATE dueled between horses to the stretch and weakened. OHTOBEASTAR settled early then saved ground to no avail. AMBER PLEASURE stalked the leaders early, offered her bid four wide nearing the quarter pole, was challenging for command in the upper stretch, bumped with VIA LATTEA and gave out. DALLY OVER DESSERT showed little. RHYTHMIC SUNRISE lacked early speed, raced four wide on the turn and never threatened. VELVET TIDE dueled from the rail early, slipped back nearing the quarter pole then steadied while tiring into the lane. JAZZY JACQLIN had no speed. The stewards posted the inquiry and reviewed the incident in the upper stretch involving AMBER PLEASURE and VIA LATTEA but allowed the original finish to stand.
