Footnotes

OUTSIDE NASHVILLE was not asked to go after WILDCAT MOON early, remained under patient handling until nearing the stretch, responded once called upon to take command a furlong out and drew clear driving. TENANGO raced unhurried early, came three wide to the stretch and finished steadily. WILDCAT MOON sprinted clear without need of urging, maintained a lengthy advantage to the upper stretch then had little resistance to the first two. UNCLE DICK settled early then saved ground to no avail. MOSES ON THE MESA lacked early speed, raced two wide on the turn and failed to rally. A REAL PIRATE flashed only brief speed. DARCURTS HOPE broke slow and was always outrun.
