Footnotes

RUN IT took command into the first turn and set all of the pace just off the rail, was well rated to the stretch then responded and edged clear driving. YOURA TON OF FUN was never far back from the inside, was boxed on the second turn but lacked the needed response once clear in the lane. FOUR NINETY NINE B was permitted to settle early but was always close up, came three wide on the second turn but failed to rally. THEN PLAY ON was fanned four wide on the first turn while just off the pace, offered a menacing bid three wide on the second turn but could not sustain the rally once in the stretch. AGGRESSION prompted the winner from the outside to the second turn and slackened. ONE ROYAL STAR lagged from the rail to the second turn, angled four wide into the stretch but failed to muster a closing response.
