Footnotes

STRONG FAITH was permitted to settle in the early going just off O.K. CORRAL, moved closer into the second turn, challenged three wide at the five sixteenths, dueled that rival into the lane then gradually edged clear in the final furlong. O. K. CORRAL gained command into the first turn without need of rushing and dropped to the rail, continued to set the pace under restraint to the second turn, responded when challenged, battled the winner to mid stretch and gradually weakened. VOLENTE DEO (NZ) raced unhurried early while three wide to the backstretch, tried to rally from just off the rail on the second turn but hung in the drive. ADDARIO (IRE) settled early from the rail, eased out on the backstretch, came three wide to the stretch but failed to rally. ANOTHER VARIETY prompted the pace two wide to the second turn then gave way between horses at the quarter pole. TRICKY SURF had no speed.
