Footnotes

BROTHER SY hit the ninth fence while unhurried through thirteen fences, steadily advanced to loom boldly three fences out and was taken in hand after the dueling two leaders went off course. THE STEWARDS ANNOUNCED AN INQUIRY, REVIEWED THE VIDEOTAPES AND DISQUALIFIED PRINCE LUDOVIC, CLASS BRAHMS AND BRANDS HATCH FOR GOING OFF COURSE. MAJOR MALIBU pressed the early lead, drew off to a long lead through six fences, hit that fence, was rated to press the pace, dueled over the water jump, remained prominent through thirteen fences and weakened. BATTLE ARAY raced in the middle of the pack, had a mild bid after the twelfth fence and tired badly two fences out. GREAT HALO was no threat. DEWEY BLUE trailed. PRINCE LUDOVIC (IRE) was well placed early, gained command before the seventh fence, led through twelve fences, dueled with CLASS BRAHMS after the third-last fence, went errantly right of the beacon near the second-last fence and was off course. CLASS BRAHMS was well placed, bid for the lead at the twelfth fence, held a short lead to near the third-last fence, dueled and went off course. BRANDS HATCH was outrun early, was awkward going over the eighth fence, rallied after thirteen fences, steadily advanced near the third-last fence and went off course.
