Footnotes

PASAY stalked the pace, took over command on the far turn, shook off a challenge entering the stretch, drew clear, then was all out to prevail over WITH ANTICIPATION. The latter, saved ground, angled three wide leaving the far turn and drew even with the winner, was outmoved in midstretch, then was gaining slowly at the wire. UNLOOSENED, outrun early, improved his position. BLUES EVENT settled off the pace, made a bid outside on the far turn and tired. SKY APPROVAL showed little. J. C. CROWN set the pace into the far turn and gave way. DISPERSER THE WAVE was through after a half mile.
