Footnotes

MODULATE reserved after breaking a step slowly, raced three wide around the turn, angled to the outside for the stretch run, then rallied under pressure to be just up at the wire. TAHIMA chased the pace three wide, rallied to take over at the eighth pole, then just failed to last. DOWN WEST stalked the pace three wide, eased outside the leaders approaching the quarter pole, made a run to reach those rivals at the eighth pole, then weakened. FINE SILVER pressed the pace, gained a slim lead between horses midway of the turn, maintained that advantage to nearing the eighth pole, then gave way. STREET LINE broke awkwardly, stalked the pace off the rail into the stretch and tired. INDY DREAMING set the pace under pressure along the inside to midway of the turn, then faltered.
