Footnotes

ZIEGFELD rated close two deep, contested the final turn then dueled determinedly through the lane to maintain a slim advantage over the runner-up. MAS MACHO rated the pace inside, contested the rail on the final turn then dug in gamely through the lane before yielding to the winners tenacity. CROSS VILLAGE rated just off the pace while off the rail, started his drive three wide on the final turn and finished well though not good enough. WHATA TOUGH KNIGHT, unhurried off the rail, bid angling five wide on the final turn and finished evenly. BEAR'S PROSPECTOR rated off the pace and off the rail, gave chase into the final turn, lost ground near the quarter pole and leveled off from there. OAK BAR was outrun. THE BIG DUNKIN rated off the pace while off the rail, bid into the final turn then drifted out weakening. JO JO LOVE and CAT 'N FIDDLE were outrun. CHAPIN BEACH rated back off the rail, bid mildly into the final turn then gave way. EVOLUTIONIST was through after half. AXMINSTER hesitated a length and a half to two lengths behind the field at the break, was never a factor and eased in the lane.
