Footnotes

SNEAKY BLOWOUT chased the pace three wide, rallied to engage SUPREME PRIVILEGE soon after entering the turn, then edged that rival to the wire after a prolonged duel. SUPREME PRIVILEGE showed speed off the rail, responded when challenged by SNEAKY BLOWOUT on the turn, was dueling with that rival when his rider lost his whip nearing the eighth pole, then continued on with good courage under a strong hand ride and just failed. MONTESARCHIO was chasing the pace along the inside when steadied along racing down the backstretch, remained in contention into the turn and tired. TIZ NAUGHTY broke awkwardly, then was no factor while racing three wide. OLIVER RUSH well placed early, raced three wide around the turn and faltered. HIGH GAUGE was through after a half mile.
