Footnotes

HEY LEROY a bit headstrong when taken back to last soon after the start, remained unhurried into the far turn, swung out for the stretch, then rallied to be just up at the wire. MR. ONLINE pressed the early pace, took over racing down the backstretch, angled to the inside entering the far turn, opened a clear lead in midstretch, then drifted out late and just failed to last. SALTO (IRE) stalked the pace along the rail into the stretch, then didn't do enough late. TETRADRACHM rated off the pace, angled out for the stretch run and closed with a mild response without threatening. GRAND TITO stalked the pace three wide into the stretch and gave way. MIDNIGHT CELLO showed brief speed along the rail and tired. FREDERICKSBURG was never a factor after being caught out wide around the first turn. KHARAFa was stalking the pace when steadied on the backstretch, moved up around the far turn to reach the attending position, then faltered in the drive. FIVE IRON raced three wide and was through after a half mile.
