Footnotes

AE PIT unhurried early, advanced along the inside around the turn, eased out, rallied to take over at the top of the stretch and opened a clear lead, then was all out to last over TRUELEE SCRAPPIN. The latter, rated off the pace, steadied when caught in traffic at the quarter pole, swung out for the stretch run, then responded to pressure and was gaining quickly on the winner at the finish. WILDCAT FORMATION chased the pace three wide, moved up to vie with CRAVIN CADEN around the turn, then gave way in the drive. EASY ACES tracked the pace four wide around the turn, then tired. CRAVIN CADEN's rider broke his right rein in the chute, rushed up along the rail to vie for the lead with WILDCAT FORMATION around the turn, then dropped back through the stretch when his rider was unable to let him do his best. HAREM DANCER tracked the pace three wide to nearing the stretch, then faltered. PEB HUGHES allowed to settle after being steadied in the chute, was saving ground when steadied in behind CRAVIN CADEN in the stretch and never threatened. FIVE FIFTY FIVE set the pace off the rail into the turn, then faded. SAND BANDIT trailed after being checked to avoid CRAVIN CADEN nearing the end of the chute.
