BAHIA DE ORO reserved off the pace, rallied between horses to reach even terms for command inside the eighth pole, then weakened. ONE OH EIGHT tracked the pace off the rail, rallied to take over in the stretch, then gave way in the final sixteenth. GRAN SABANA outrun early, advanced to reach contention in the stretch but couldn't gain late. BAB'SBRICKHOUSE allowed to settle after being caught in tight along the rail on the first turn, raced three wide around the far turn while moving into contention but had no further response.
