Footnotes

HEART STEALER was a bit slow into stride then rated off the pace till about the three eighths at which point the rider requested she pick it up, split rivals at that point and then once again settled nicely off the pace of the top two, shifted four wide on the far turn to commence her bid and through a prolonged drive was able to get up in the final strides. R FREE ROLL got away alertly and cleared the field soon after the start, angled to the rail to set the pace inside, just failed to last. MUNNINGS SISTER chased two wide, was all out making her bid between runners in the stretch, best of the rest. CLASSIC POINT chased three to four wide throughout, had no late response. CRAZY ABOUT ME raced inside, drifted to the two path into the lane, was no factor. TWICE TOLD TALE trailed early, cut the corner to save ground, failed to menace.
