Footnotes

IL VOLO got away alertly but was content to take back and track the dueling pacesetters from the rail racing inside a four-pronged second flight, angled outside foes and to the three path at the top of the lane to commence his bid, was put to a drive and got up in the final strides. VALERIE'SGREENJET dueled outside a foe to the far turn, dispatched that rival and edged clear in upper stretch, was caught late. MAIN MAN MIKE stalked the pace between runners two wide for the opening half, shifted out a path at about the quarter pole as the rider got to work on him to launch a three wide bid, could only muster an even finish while appearing a bit weary late. PERFECT POWER stalked while four wide around the first turn, continued from that vantage point down the backstretch, dropped back on the far turn while still traveling wide, continued to drop back some in upper stretch before showing renewed interest to post some late gain in deep stretch. JONATHAN C raced toward the rear and inside till the far turn at which point he was guided outside foes three wide, improved position while racing evenly. DRAGON TAIL showed no early speed, brought up the rear till the far turn, shifted outside foes while picking up the pace a bit, swung four to five wide into the lane, gained mildly. SCORPION AL dueled inside, gave way. SEASIDE ROAD stalked three wide for half a mile, faltered, faded.
