Footnotes

DOUBLE THE ENERGY lacked early foot, asked along while trailing three wide midway on the turn, set down entering the stretch, closed with good late energy outside to be up in time. MADAME GIRY trailed early, ranged up on the outside while in hand to challenge turning for home, lugged in slightly while still in hand past the furlong marker when holding the advantage, roused late, caught in the final strides. ROSA SALVAJE closest to the early pace, fell back through the turn, came again in the two path late to annex the show. SWEET AND LOWDOWN showed the way while rating along the inside, responded when the runner up came alongside exiting the turn, gave ground grudgingly to that foe, proved stubborn until the final strides, just caught show. LISSELAN DIVA (IRE) last to leave, moved up into a striking position into the turn, appeared to lug into the temporary rail late in the bend while firmly in hand and being shown a left handed stick, backed up in the drive, vanned off.
