Footnotes

BATTER UP stalked the early front runners racing along the inside, began to advance position going into the turn, raced two to three wide midstretch, dug in along outside of rivals and prevailed under driving finish. RAPACIOUS allowed to settle in the early stages, steadily began to advance position, slipped thru on rail in upper stretch, lacked racing room and finished gamely between rivals in the late drive. FACT stalked along the inside in early stages, advanced position along outside heading into the turn, vied for the late lead, continued to dig in but could not hold off rivals in final strides. VAN CITRA took command and continued to set the pace along the inside, was challenged heading into the turn, vied for the lead and weakened slightly before the wire. GAELICO pressed the early pace, continued near the front runners heading into the turn and came up empty in the stretch. WHARTON raced up close tracking the early leader and steadily weakened after a half mile. MARFORD MISSILE (IRE) stalked the early front runners, raced two to three wide and had no kick in the stretch. HAUNTED bit reluctant to load, broke slightly outward at the start and failed to make a impact. LAUNCH COMMANDER raced two off the inside and stalked the early front runners, lacked late needed rally.
