Footnotes

LOCK N LOLA moved to the fore from between foes, dictated the pace a bit off the inside on a narrow margin into the first turn, angled inwards after the opening quarter, turned back a challenge leaving the second bend and edged away under firm encouragement. TEXAS AGGIE tracked off the second flight unhurried to the backstretch, switched out four deep after a half to come around foes and gain terms with the pacesetter, pressed the issue into upper stretch but proved only second best. TRAC N JAM tracked the leaders outside a rival in the second flight, drew into striking distance leaving the far turn and made some mild progress racing through the stretch. ANGEL DIVINE broke awkwardly, settled into stride along the inside, then split foes in upper stretch to improve position while never seriously menacing. OUR RACHEL tracked the pacesetter along the inside in second flight racing to the backstretch but steadily retreated entering the far turn. CUNNING ARTIST broke slowly and never gained contention. BELLAMY LASS tracked the leaders along the inside to the backstretch but dropped out early. ANGEL OVER ME was urged to join the pace four wide racing into the first turn, couldn't match terms with the winner after a half and emptied out entering the far turn.
