Footnotes

SIN BIN was settled along the rail in last racing to the backstretch, continued unhurried saving ground on the far turn, switched off the inside to split foes four wide nearing midstretch and produced a solid late response to wrest command and go well clear under steady prompting. TARVA, off a step slowly, made steady progress while angling between foes to gain a position in the second flight after a half, shifted out nearing upper stretch to challenge three deep racing through the stretch but proved only second best when confronted by the winner. ORCHARD, reserved off the second flight while angling inwards racing into the first turn, shifted out on the second bend while gradually gaining striking distance, angled out five wide racing into upper stretch and continued well enough to gain a share. SURELY JACKSON stalked just off the pacesetter under light rating racing into the backstretch, moved to press that foe racing through the far turn, struck the front between calls but emptied out nearing midstretch. DUBIOUS tracked the leaders unhurried along the inside racing just out of striking distance as part of the second flight in the opening half, came under pressure to advance inside foes racing through the far turn but proved empty nearing upper stretch. SASSY BUCK angled inwards a bit leading the second flight into the backstretch, continued three deep racing into the second bend and soon came up empty. WILD ABOUT BOYS was urged to the lead along the inside racing to the backstretch, went clear before a half but emptied out once headed nearing upper stretch.
