Footnotes

PARK BOYS broke outwards bumping GRAZIE, was righted to stalk just off and outside the first flight, made steady progress on the bend to challenge four wide in upper stretch, took over and went clear under pressure. CAP'N MEDS, bumped at the start, was righted to track the pace between foes, moved to striking distance on the bend, was shuffled in close quarters after a half, shifted out four deep in upper stretch and made solid progress to gain the place late. CATFEINATED stalked just off the pacesetter racing to the bend, pressed that foe three deep into upper stretch, disputed the issue inside the winner in upper stretch but weakened late when proving no match. GRAZIE, bumped soundly at the start by the winner, was guided to the inside racing to the turn, came through inside foes making steady progress to upper stretch but flattened out late. NO PASSAGE, caught seven wide in the opening stages, angled inwards under some reserve on the bend, shifted out five wide in upper stretch and finished evenly late. HOLY FEVER tracked just off the first flight in the opening quarter, angled inside foes on the turn to briefly menace but came up empty in upper stretch. LITTLEBITEVEN was settled off the inside early and passed inside tiring rivals in late stages. HENNEPIN COUNTY broke in, bumped CAP'N MEDS, was caught six wide between foes in the opening quarter, continued widest to upper stretch and came up empty after a half. WINDY CITY LEAL was settled along the inside early and never gained contention. CAPTAIN PIEVO dictated the pace from the break shifting a bit off the inside, drifted out nearing upper stretch and gave way.
