Footnotes

ROMAN INVADER, held up inside foes racing just out of striking distance in the opening half, shifted out midway through the backstretch, advanced readily on the pacesetter in tandem with a rival entering the far turn, wrested command from between foes after six furlongs and went clear into the stretch, widening her advantage to the end under pressure. LUSESITA stumbled at the start, was settled into stride while in hand early, made steady progress to gain striking distance leaving the far turn, angled four wide in upper stretch, couldn't gain terms with the winner but prevailed in late stages for the place. GROOM CHASER, forwardly placed between foes in the opening stages, shifted out a bit after a half, advanced in tandem with the winner to challenge three wide midway through the second bend, but couldn't match terms with the winner in the final quarter and lost the place nearing the wire. DEAR FRIEND was urged to the lead outside foes racing into the first turn, dictated the pace near the inside racing into the far turn but emptied out once headed on the far turn. POCKET MISS was a brief factor three wide in the second flight between foes, couldn't match the leaders after five furlongs and dropped out of contention on the far turn. METROSMILE was never a factor.
