Footnotes

RUNS WITH BULLS was urged to secure the lead between foes in the opening stages to gain a clear advantage after the opening quarter, opened a commanding margin racing through the turn and steadily widened his advantage to the end under pressure. TWO LIONS tracked just off the second flight unhurried in the opening stages, made steady progress racing four wide into the turn to gain terms with the second flight and narrowly prevailed for place honors in the closing stages while never menacing the winner. BACKDOC tracked off the second flight under light rating a bit off the inside racing to the turn, was urged to split foes racing into upper stretch, couldn't gain striking distance and was outfinished for second. DOCKTOR DEMENTED, in touch with the pacesetter three deep in the opening furlong, led the second flight racing into the turn while losing ground to the leader and steadily weakened in late stages. HOLY FEVER settled in last while five wide in the opening stages, continued in that path into the turn and never gained striking distance. THREFIFTYSEVENMAG was a brief factor along the inside tracking the pacesetter as part of the second flight but retreated from contention early.
