Footnotes

SECRET DESTINY was rated close off the rail, started her bid nearing the quarter pole, dueled through the stretch and was clear leaving the sixteenth pole. INSTINCT was rated back off the pace saving ground, taken out on the far turn making her bid widest through the stretch and getting up for place. JUST A GINNY raced just off the pace, lacked room in the upper stretch, angled out in midstretch and made a mild late bid. COUSIN GIGI set the early pace then was rated close to the new leader, retook the lead on the inside of the far turn, dueled onto late stretch then weakened. MAMBO MADNESS raced off the early pace, advanced on the outside of the far turn, looked like a factor leaving the turn then leveled off. DOUBLE ROAD advanced to the lead on the backstretch, dropped back into the far turn then gave way in the stretch. POWERFUL PACKAGE saved ground and was no factor.
