HOG'S HOLLOW chased outside a rival to the second turn, rallied outside leaving the second turn and drew out in the final furlong while remaining off the rail. TWEEBSTER found a comfortable stalking position leaving the first turn, chased outside a foe down the backstretch and rallied through the lane between horses to gain the place on the wire. SQUAD moved to the early lead between horses, opened up a large lead leaving the first turn, held the advantage to midstretch, weakened and lost second in the final yards. DUCANE saved ground around the first turn, chased inside the winner down the backstretch, entered the stretch between horses and could not make up the needed ground in the final furlong. GROVE PARK was without any early speed and was outrun to the stretch, improved his position in the lane between horses while no threat for the major awards. B'S LUCKY STRIKE chased outside down the backstretch, entered the lane three wide and was unable to make up ground in the final furlong. TALIAFERRO stalked the pacesetter on the inside to the lane, remained inside for the drive and fell back through the lane. BRAVO ZULU was squeezed slightly after the break, chased inside down the backstretch and without a rally in the drive.
