Footnotes

TEDDY'S PROMISE had good early speed and set the pace inside, kicked clear leaving the backstretch, came a bit off the rail into the stretch, was mildly hand ridden for several strides to widen and flagged with the whip once left handed in the final furlong and proved best in hand. QUEENIE MARINI stalked the winner a bit off the rail to the stretch and held second. YELLOW SLICKER chased off the inside, angled in a bit on the turn and lacked the needed rally. BANANA CREAM PIE pulled between horses then dropped back and saved ground chasing the pace, fell back more on the turn, gave way in the stretch and was eased late.
