NICE MEIDEL stalked the pace outside a rival leaving the chute and down the backstretch, moved closer on the turn,bid for the lead at the top of the lane, battled on a short lead outside the pacesetter through the final furlong and prevailed on the wire. BLUE SAMURAI sped immediately to the early lead, showed the way slightly off the rail down the backstretch and around the turn, was challenged for command at the top of the lane, battled on the inside the length of the stretch and lost the bob at the wire. MIZZEN DONALD hopped slightly at the start, stalked the pace inside the winner down the backstretch, saved ground around the turn, came out for the stretch drive, did not threaten for a major award but held the show. SKIPTON CREEK was unhurried down the backstretch, saved some ground around the turn, came out for the drive and was edged for the show.
