Footnotes

YIELDING GOLD tracked the early pace on the rail, got through inside at the quarter pole, drew off the last sixteenth while being kept to the task. MISS BODINE stalked the pace on the outside, dueled with VALID MEADOW to mid stretch, shook loose of that one, could not threaten the winner but held the place safe. FALSE IMPRESSION well placed and three wide, angled out to the four path to bid into the stretch, made a mild gain to get up for the show. VALID MEADOW set the early pace off the rail, dueled with a rival through mid stretch, weakened in the late going. BELL GOT EVEN well back and between rivals, showed little. SAILORS PASTTIME widest, was outrun. MIZ KATE DOVEY had a rail trip and was no factor.
