Footnotes

LIMESHARE was well placed down the backside, rallied at the quarter pole and angled out three wide, prevailed through a long drive under strong handling. ARTILLERY was unhurried early, rallied in the upper stretch on the inside and finished well. STEADY ROAR had good early position, loomed boldly on the second turn and mid stretch while four wide, was outfinished late. HALF A MINE never far back, lacked a late response and went evenly. GIACOMO AND JACK pressed the pace and dueled on the lead, gave way in the stretch. RICH MONARCHOS vied for the lead for seven furlongs, tired in mid stretch. BULL PEN three wide early, tired in the stretch. BENCHIDY dueled early on the inside, gave way on the second turn.
