Footnotes

JAMES THE GREATER moved clear early and established his own pace racing just out from the rail, surged away through the far turn then was roused twice through the sixteenth grounds while widening. HESO followed the pace racing out from the rail, moved to striking position going up the backstretch, angled three wide into the lane and rallied to second but could not menace the winner. SHOW MY DANCER stalked the pace of the winner racing outside that one, remained in good position to the far turn then weakened nearing the lane and lost the place through the lane. ORDVILLE saved ground to move into range going to the far turn with his bid but could not sustain the move into the lane. DICE stalked the pace racing three to four wide and weakened. HAMTARO was just off the early pace racing along the inside, was boxed in and lacked room leaving the second turn then steadied into the far turn as a rival angled in and tired. EWING TIGER tired racing two and three wide.
