Footnotes

VICTORIOUS SPIRIT away alertly and rushed to the lead from along the rail entering the first turn, held a clear advantage into the stretch and drew off in the lane. TRIPLEWITCHINGHOUR allowed to settle while angling in to save some ground entering the first turn, rallied three wide on the final turn and closed two wide through the stretch to get up for the place late. ALLUSHA away well and chased the leader into the first turn while racing two from the rail, continued to chase the pacesetter into the final turn, was unable to match strides with her through the final furlong and lost the place in deep stretch. SPIRIT WANDERING broke sharply and tracked the early leader into the first turn racing two from the rail, continued from a tracking position through the final turn but lacked the needed closing response when called upon. EXILDA chased the pace into the first turn while one from the rail, but steadily retreated soon after entering the backstretch. OLIVE DE OTHER unhurried early while dropping back to trail, and was never a factor.
