Footnotes

DELVIN'S A HATER stalked the pace two wide down the backstretch and into the turn, quickly rushed by the tiring leader in mid-turn to gain the advantage, was joined soon after and maintained the advantage to the end in a game effort. SONG OF LIFE stalked the pace three wide into the turn, moved with the winner near the three-eighths pole, engaged that one in a long drive and was denied while slowly inching up. RYERSE was a bit slow early when spotting the field several lengths, moved through the turn from the three path and never seriously threatened while up for the minor share. SIR VICAR was along the rail throughout and never offered a bid. SCOTLAND YARD was hustled to the front into the first turn, maintained the advantage into the far turn then was finished. SHARPTONGUE DEVIL trailed throughout in a dull effort.
