Footnotes

PRINCE OF TIME vied for the lead while in the two or three path, cleared into the turn,widened into the lane and extended the margin while kept to the task. ELLENBERGER PARK was well placed down the backstretch, dropped back through the turn then moved up in the lane while not a threat to the winner. FATHER MICK settled back off the pace while near the inside, moved five or six wide through the turn, fanned into the seven path for the drive and moved up. THE DUCK OF REED chased the pace from the four path and lacked a response in the lane. DAMION E. T. raced near the inside into the turn, bid in mid-turn then flattened out. H K JUNIOR was four wide into the lane and never factored. NORTHERN REVEAL was four or five wide through the first turn and never factored while off the inside. STORMIN' BUFFALO steadily lost ground while near the inside. FLYLIKABIRD bumped at the start,hustled along the inside to press the pace down the backstretch and into the turn then faded. HUNTINGTON'S BEST vied for the lead along the inside and steadily retreated. BOLD SPIRIT chased the pace form the three or four path into the turn then retreated.
