Footnotes

SWEET DADDY rated off the pace while between horses for the early portion of the run down the backstretch, moved up approaching the turn, cutting the corner and then weaving through traffic to get up along the rail in the final strides. DYNAMITE STICK was in the second flight early, moved up along the rail on the turn, shifted out two wide midway on the turn, led, missed. KING HUGO broke alertly but was allowed to settle off the pace, advanced four to five wide on the turn, up for show. POP MUSIC chased the pace three wide, weakened late. COMMANDER LUKE was unhurried early, passed tired horses in the lane. POLAR PAL broke sharply and angled in to dictate the pace while racing in the two path, drifted in very close to the rail at the eighth pole, tired. SPEEDY TROUT hustled from the start, chased pace, had nothing in the lane. KODIAK SYD was asked for run early on, had no response and trailed throughout.
