Footnotes

GO GO LOLO attended the pace two wide in the early stages, was confronted on the outside and forced in a bit tight midway on the backstretch, at which point she dropped inside and behind runners, was full of run but had to wait just a bit on the far turn, managed to split rivals at the top of the lane and quickly spurted clear. MISSISSIPPI MARTINI broke in the air and was hustled along early to keep pace, steadily advanced four wide around both turns, was no match for the winner. MY MISS MARY shifted five wide on the far turn for a bold move, loomed at the top of the lane and then flattened out. ANY GIVEN CHANCE delivered a strong middle move on the backstretch to apply pace pressure three wide, weakened. SAINTLY BOUND set a pressured pace, gave way. QUIET BY SEVEN was outrun.
