MALAWI dueled for the lead along the inside, edged clear entering the stretch, and widened her advantage despite bearing out through the final three-sixteenths. PRINCESS ANDREA disputed the pace to the outside of MALAWI, altered course to the inside of that rival nearing the furlong marker and kept on fairly well to hold the place. TRIBECKY chased the dueling leaders three deep, but went evenly through the drive and settled for a minor award. SIGH went greenly into stride, veered out nearly unseating her jockey just after the start, was straightened away and made a belated gain toward the inside but failed to seriously threaten. POLLARD'S BABE settled in the second flight, came five wide but lacked a response when called upon. RISING BAROMETER broke a step slow, steadied sharply when SIGH came out, dropped well back and lost her best chance. Following a Stewards inquiry SIGH was disqualified from fourth and placed sixth for veering out and taking the path of RISING BAROMETER just out of the gate forcing that one to steady.
