Footnotes

BADGE OF SILVER rushed to the front early, quickly drew clear, widened a bit entering the stretch, then continued under mild hand urging to win comfortably. TITLE SHOT, four wide in a contending position to the stretch, wasn't a threat to the winner as second best. SEA SCOUT went to his knees at the start, settled, advanced near the inside and was unable to menace in the drive. KAPU KAT, briefly in front after the start, lost the edge to the winner, raced five wide into the stretch and weakened. STORM UNBRIDLED stumbled at the start and failed to menace. QUIET STRIPE, six wide most of the way, never was close. ROBERTO'S HONOR wasn't a factor..
