Footnotes

AVENSTOKE attended the pace along the inside, steadied from tight quarters near the seven-sixteenths pole, altered course to the outside, came again four wide, and wore down his rivals in the final yards. ARIDUS pulled to the fore to dictate terms, fought on through a prolonged drive but grudgingly gave in. BELL BY THE RIDGE was allowed to settle, launched a bold bid five, drew even with a quarter to run, but weakened slightly between horses and settled for the minor award. MINT CHIP was unhurried into stride, tucked in to save ground, angled out five wide and improved position through the stretch. HUGHES NEXT tracked the pace three wide, but weakened after six furlongs and faded. GETTA RHYTHM pressed the pace two wide for five furlongs and stopped.
