Footnotes

MILLENNIUM WIND moved to the fore inside soon after the start, controlled the pace under careful handling while racing in the two or three path, was earnestly challenged midway on the second turn from the outside by SONGANDAPRAYER, battled that one into submission upon entering the stretch, edged clear, then increased his advantage under intermittent urging. SONGANDAPRAYER went up early to press the winner under light rating, inched after MILLENNIUM WIND on the second turn, gained almost even terms, continued to challenge that one into the stretch, weakened gradually when straightened for the drive and drifted out for a stride leaving the eighth pole when roused with the whip left-handed. DOLLAR BILL, lightly bumped at the start when BONNIE SCOT leaned in, settled inside, was unhurried until the end of the backstretch, was asked a bit, continued inside into the stretch, angled three wide and improved position while not a serious threat. INVISIBLE INK, close up inside from the outset, eased out three wide approaching the second turn, was asked for his best leaving the three-eighths pole, remained prominent until the stretch but was empty the last eighth. A P VALENTINE, five or six wide into the backstretch, edged in around the second turn, continued three wide into the stretch and failed to menace. BONNIE SCOT leaned in at the start bumping lightly with DOLLAR BILL, angled inside early, appeared to be climbing on the backstretch, angled four or five wide into the stretch but flattened out. HERO'S TRIBUTE, taken in hand early to follow the leaders three or four wide, was put to a drive entering the second turn, but tired approaching the stretch.
