Footnotes

DOMINICAN hopped slightly the start, quickly settled three or four wide, was asked to pick it up three furlongs out, worked his way out seven wide about the furlong grounds, then closed determinedly to be up in the last lunge. STREET SENSE, well in hand while following the leaders five wide from the outset, crept up four wide approaching the final quarter, was floated out seven wide by GREAT HUNTER when that one was forced out a bit in the upper stretch by TEUFLESBERG, was carried out for a stride at the sixteenth pole by TEUFLESBERG, stuck a head in front briefly approaching the wire but dropped a tough decision in the last stride. ZANJERO, up close from the outset while in hand two or three wide, made a bold run to poke his head in front briefly in the final sixteenth but was outfinished. TEUFLESBERG bobbed at the start, quickly recovered and galloped to a clear, easy lead while in hand, accomplished modest fractions, came out farther on the track entering the upper stretch, drifted out in front of GREAT HUNTER about the sixteenth pole when sharply roused left-handed forcing that one to take up, was straightened and continued on with good courage. GREAT HUNTER brushed the side of the gate at the break, went up to track front-running TEUFLESBERG in hand four wide, inched after the leader leaving the second turn, was floated out a bit by that one entering the lane, then was forced to take up when TEUFLESBERG drifted out at the sixteenth pole. TIME SQUARED, off a step slow, raced three or four wide, angled seven or eight wide leaving the second turn but offered no closing threat. LOVE DUBAI, slow to begin, raced three wide while unhurried, maneuvered out nine wide into the stretch and never menaced.
