Footnotes

HOLLYWOOD FEVER edged in early to force the pace four or five wide, took over for good nearing the final furlong, then held sway under hand urging. SPECIAL DEED, sluggish to begin and outrun until approaching the stretch while near the inside, eased out slightly nearing the final furlong, split foes three wide and was going well at the end. A CALL FOR GERTIE leaned in at the start exchanging bumps with SONYA'S SMILE, settled within easy striking distance three or four wide, angled five wide for the drive but gained only slightly at the end. VALIDA contested the pace from early on, raced between rivals while about even terms inside the winner to the lane and weakened gradually. BIRTHDAY SONG, outsprinted early and five wide, moved six abreast at the quarter-mile ground but lacked a closing bid. U GOT THE TOUCH, always well placed while four wide, made a bold bid five wide to briefly reach the front outside the winner in the upper stretch but failed to sustain the needed momentum. SONYA'S SMILE came out at the break exchanging bumps with A CALL FOR GERTIE, five or six wide, moved seven wide into the lane and flattened out. AVARICITY battled for the lead inside early, stuck a head in front on the turn, was steadied in tight quarters at the five-sixteenths pole and fell back steadily thereafter. EDGEWATER SAVIOR, sluggish early, rushed inside early, moved off the inside nearing the lane but never menaced. MARGIE GOLDEN was outrun.
