Footnotes

WILD GAMS settled three or four wide early, raced between foes under confident handling into the upper stretch, worked her way out six wide leaving the furlong pole and edged clear late under strong hand urging. SUGAR SWIRL, near the inside and between foes while never far back, split horses four wide through close quarters leaving the furlong grounds, was inside the winner but couldn't match strides as second best. BARONESS THATCHER, within easy striking distance near the inside, was steadied at the five-sixteenths pole, split rivals three wide in the last eighth, loomed prominently but couldn't muster the needed response. MARY DELANEY tracked the pace four or five wide into the last eighth and came up empty. LADY BELSARA, up close inside front-running HOT STORM to the stretch, gradually weakened. HOT STORM gained the lead early, raced three wide, held the advantage into the final furlong and faltered. TIME'S MISTRESS, within striking distance four wide to the stretch, weakened when straightened for the drive. BLUESBDANCING, outrun four wide to the lane, came wider for the drive and never fired. COSTUME DESIGNER, off a bit slow, never was a factor and raced eight wide into the stretch.
