Footnotes

ADMIRAL BIRD, rated off the dueling leaders three or four wide early, swept to the front in the upper stretch, drew clear, then was fully extended to last. TWILIGHT METEOR hopped while breaking slowly, settled near the inside, eased out four or five wide leaving the second turn, had aim in the drive but couldn't get up. COBRADOR, within striking distance always and five wide, fanned wider in the upper stretch but couldn't muster the needed response. EIGHTEENTHOFMARCH forced the pace from early on, engaged front-running PETE THE POET in earnest on the backstretch, headed that one for the lead, battled up close to the lane and weakened. SCOTT'S TIME settled in behind horses early, worked his way out five wide entering the upper stretch and failed to respond. PETE THE POET broke sharply to gain the lead, opened a clear advantage on the first turn, was headed on the backstretch from the outside by EIGHTEENTHOFMARCH, continued up close to the stretch and faltered. INDEPENDENT BANKER tracked the dueling leaders three or four wide for six furlongs and weakened.
