Footnotes

KIP DEVILLE, in hand while between foes from early on three or four wide, inched after front-running SMART ENOUGH nearing the stretch, dueled with that one into the final furlong, took over and was ridden hard the remainder. STORM TREASURE hopped slightly at the break, settled four wide, moved up between foes approaching the stretch, angled five wide for the drive and was fully extended to earn the place. SMART ENOUGH gained the lead early, moved near the inside, drifted out a bit entering the first turn, was straightened to show the way two wide, was engaged by the winner from the outside entering the lane and held on stubbornly the remainder. GIMME CREDIT, rated along three or four wide, was between horses entering the stretch and within easy striking distance, angled to the rail for the drive but couldn't offer the needed late gain. KINGSHIP drifted in bumping UNION AVENUE at the start, was never far back while tracking the pace four or five wide, remained a solid threat into the last eighth and came up empty. UNION AVENUE bobbed at the start, was bumped by KINGSHIP, raced four wide while never far back, maneuvered six wide into the stretch and failed to fire. RAEDONALD, near the inside to the stretch, eased out three or four wide for the drive but had no rally. MANCHU PRINCE, four or five wide while outrun to the lane, came out eight wide for the drive and never menaced. TITLED raced forwardly near the inside and weakened approaching the stretch.
