Footnotes

BEL AIR BEAUTY, never far back, followed the leaders under light rating five wide, continued from that position on the course to commence her rally, took over leaving the furlong grounds and was under mild urging while well clear. BACHATA, slow to begin and outrun for six furlongs while three wide, split foes four wide in mid-stretch and was going well at the end to earn the place. PITAMAKAN gained the lead early, maneuvered in nicely to show the way two or three wide, made the pace into the final furlong and weakened. TESTAMA (FR), unhurried early and in behind foes, continued between horses when advancing around the far turn and into the stretch, worked her way to the rail in the late going but couldn't offer the needed response. STORMY WEST, outrun for six furlongs, circled horses ten wide into the lane and managed a mild gain. CALLWOOD DANCER (IRE), five or six wide, lacked a closing account. LISA M, outrun to the stretch, improved position while not a serious threat. LONG APPROACH raced in contention near the inside to the stretch and came up empty. AUDACIOUS CHLOE pressed front-running PITAMAKAN early three or four wide, moved menacingly nearing the final furlong but flattened out soon after. SUPER FREAKY, well placed near the inside to the stretch, angled four wide for the drive and was empty. BEAUTIFUL VENUE stalked the pace four wide to the stretch, tired, and steadied in the late going. LEMONLIME tired after six furlongs.
