Footnotes

TWILIGHT METEOR, never far back while in hand between foes, went after front-running MARCAVELLY the first time when five wide on the far turn, fell back slightly nearing the stretch, came again to collar the leader a sixteenth out and drove clear under strong handling. MARCAVELLY gained the lead early, raced four wide while carefully handled, was clear entering the upper stretch while edging closer to the inside but couldn't handle TWILIGHT METEOR in the late going. ADMIRAL BIRD broke out while leaving a bit sluggishly, settled four or five wide, made a five wide run into the upper stretch but failed to gain in the late going. HEAD TO TOE, well placed near the inside, was empty entering the stretch. ROYAL WAR ACADEMY pressed front-running MARCAVELLY our wide for six furlongs and couldn't keep pace.
