Footnotes

SWISS ALPINE was off alertly, dueled then forced the p[er]formance from outside rival, lost contact into the stretch, came out slightly then re-rallied and gamely prevailed. ATLANTRA'S TANTRUM settled inside, saved ground into the lane, roused and eagerly responded from the inside, surged along the rail and narrowly missed. TOM'S LIGHTNING dueled then set pressured pace from the inside, padded cushion entering and in upper stretch, drifted out slightly, grew bit weary and was nailed late from between horses. KALOOKAN HEAT was forwardly placed, stalked on three wide path, came out some in the drive and finished with interest outside. BEV'S EX reserved off the leaders, angled over some chased three then two wide and went willingly to the wire. PLEASURE GROUNDS dropped well back in the early going and was outrun throughout.
