Footnotes

GRAND MISCHIEF quickly stepped to the front, dictated pace while bit off the rail, secured the inside entering the bend, retained cushion into the lane and safely held. LOOKING OUT prompted the early pace from along the rail, lost contact on the turn, remained on the fence and went evenly to the wire. IVA ATTITUDE widest of all chasing the pace early, caught three deep leaving the backstretch, remained on same path and clearly bested rest. BLACK WILDCAT chased from the inside, hugged the rail into and through the stretch and improved placing. ZOLAZANE stalked from off the rail, continued three wide then outside rival, between horses entering the stretch and lacked any rally. PARIS CAR SHOW reserved early, angled in, saved ground to the stretch, shifted out in upper stretch then lugged out later while outrun.
