Footnotes

OL'DOGTOWN forced the early pace then moved up and bid between horses, gained lead into the bend, pulled clear into the lane and prevailed under couple right hand taps and hand pressure. UNCLE JACK G quickly stepped to the front, briefly dueled three deep and outside winner, prompted the pace on the turn, drifted out slightly and went willingly to the wire. WIN TO WIN bobbled slightly leaving the gate, unhurried from the inside, swung out three then four wide into the stretch, remained outside and was along for third. JANS ANTOR settled outside, shifted over entering the bend, found the rail around the turn, angled back out in the stretch and lost the show. WHYA DA WHYA was off slow, rushed up to pressure the pace from the inside, dropped back around the turn then was not persevered with nearing the wire and walked off.
