Footnotes

ROB'S AFLEET vied for the lead from between rivals, cleared foes around the turn, then held off foe under a strong drive. SUTTER BUTTE settled off the pace, took the turn two wide, then came with a late rush in the lane but was too late. BAHREEDA reserved in the early going, raced off the rail, angled in during the stretch run and produced a late rally. LAS VEGAS LUCKY vied for command while three deep, then weakened down the lane. AMERICAN GAMES chased the early speedsters while three wide off the fence, then finished evenly late. MILLISTOCKS JUMPIN chased from along the inside in the early going, lacked room and was forced to check into the stretch, then failed to recover after. PRINCE SNOWBOUND showed early speed and gained control of the rail, was unable to match strides around the turn and gave way down the lane.
